▼ Hell just go. Dont worry about hotel rooms. Fellow patriots will help you out. Plus I'm not sure its advisable to leave and go to hotels once you are there at the capital grounds. Be prepared to stay and apply pressure.

1 I am making arrangements for a Caravan from ATL to DC on the 6th. If you're in ATL and you are interested, here is the Discord Channel I setup to start making arrangement, <https://discord.gg/nWZXbSqj>

1 If anyone is going, I am hearing DC and Arlington but don't forget the Maryland burbs just north of DC-- Bethesda, Silver Spring, Rockville, etc. Check hotel prices there. Also if you're not driving find out if Uber or a taxi would work from there, it's not far. Hotel can get you the hire cars. Edit: Travelodge by Wyndham Silver Spring $64/night. Check tripadvisor.

1 I would like to understand the plan for being armed. You're probably safe once you're there with a million other armed up patriots. But how to get your rifle into the city when you're on the train?

▲ MaverickRobot 2 months ago +1 / -0

1 The real bitch of it is I'm starting a new job that Monday, I don't think I can attend on Wednesday... but  going to check into the details anyway. Maybe I can work something out

4 Is body armor acceptable attire?

▼ permalink save report block reply

▲ Cyer6 2 months ago +4 / -0

4 Armed folks need to be very ANONYMOUS! Generic camo, face and eyes completely covered. No patches or other bullshit that can ID you. There will be cameras on everyone with Face ID. There will also be UC's in the crowd watching, photographing and trying to ID people. Keep this in mind. Antifa knew this and even many of them have been caught.

2 Hmm, just don't want to be on cmCBS news for having armor on. Hehehe

8 Booked into the Trump Intl for the 5th-7th. I can't tell you how much personal sacrifice this takes for my wife and I, but not just everything we've accomplished the past 4 years is on the line, our Republic is too.
